October 10th 1900

McMahon—Duffy.

The marriage of Miss Katherine E. Duffy, daughter of James F. Duffy of No. 50 Governor street, and John J. McMahon of New York, formerly of Hartford, took place at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock this morning. The Rev. Paul F. McAlenny performed the ceremony and celebrated a nuptial high mass. As the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father the Lohengrin wedding march was played on the organ by Professor E. V. Caulfield. The bride was gowned in white Swiss over silk, trimmed with Val lace and ribbon and a fichu of mousseline de soie,caught with a brooch of pearls and diamonds, a present from the groom. The bride carried a white ivory covered prayer book. The bridesmaid was Miss May Langdon, who wore white Swiss over pink silk trimmed with ribbon and Val lace. She wore a picture hat and carried white roses. The groomsman was John A. Barlow. The ushers at the church were James A. Duffy and William B. Duffy, brothers of the bride, and James M. Lawton and John Byrne of New Haven, cousins. After the ceremony a pleasant reception was held at the home of the bride, where the happy couple received the cordial congratulations of their friends. The wedding breakfast was served on the lawn under canvas that was decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. McMahon left on the 3:50 train this afternoon for Washington, where they will spend their honeymoon. From Washington they will go to their home in New York, where Mr. McMahon is employed as an architect. A number of valuable and handsome presents were given to Mr. and Mrs. McMahon. Guests were present from New York, New Haven and Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. McMahon will be at home after November 1 at No. 154 West Sixty-eighth street, New York.

Wedding at St. Peters.

Miss Kitty Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Duffy of 50 Governor street, and John J. McMahon of New York, formerly of this city, will be married at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride and the couple will go to Washington on a wedding tour. Returning they will live in New York. The young couple have already received many handsome presents including cut glass and silver.